17 Kilos of Cocaine Taken in Detroit Drug Bust

On January 26, 2005, Wayne County Prosecutor Kym L. Worthy charged Earnest Gray Jackson, 58 of Detroit in connection with a Detroit Police Department Narcotics Section drug bust that took place at a home on Berg Road in Detroit. The Detroit Police confiscated 17 kilos of cocaine, marijuana, 3 firearms and approximately $887,333 in narcotics proceeds.

The defendant has been charged with Possession with Intent to Deliver Cocaine over 1,000 grams, which carries a life sentence, Possession with Intent to Deliver Marijuana, which carries a maximum four year sentence, Felon in Possession of a Firearm, which carries a maximum five year sentence, Felony Firearm, which carries a two-year sentence and Habitual 2nd, which multiplies the maximum sentence by 1 ½.

The arraignment on the warrant will take place at 1:00 pm at 36th District Court in Detroit today. The magistrate that will preside is unknown at this time.
