FERGUSON PLEADS GUILTY TO TEN YEAR FELONY

Bobby Ferguson, 36, of Detroit pled guilty before 3rd Circuit Court Judge Bruce U. Morrow to Assault With Intent to do Great Bodily Harm Less Than Murder, a felony that carries a penalty of any term of years up to 10 years in prison. He was originally charged with Assault With Intent to do Great Bodily Harm and Felony Firearm.

The defendant will be sentenced on October 7, 2005 in connection with the October 6, 2004 beating of Kennedy Thomas, 36, of Detroit. The plea agreement entered into by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office and the defendant mandates that the defendant receive 10 months in the Wayne County Jail with 5 years probation.

Prosecutor Kym L. Worthy stated: "The victim and his mother, a former police officer agreed with this decision. Bobby Ferguson will have to answer for his actions by being incarcerated. "
