PROSECUTOR WORTHY ATTENDS GUN SUMMIT

Wayne County Prosecutor Kym L. Worthy is attending the Great Lakes Summit on Gun Violence that began yesterday and will conclude on April 11, 2007. The International Association of Chiefs of Police and the Chicago-based Joyce Foundation are hosting the summit at the Palmer House Hilton in Chicago, Illinois.

The topic is: Gun Violence Reduction in the Great Lakes States. Law enforcement leaders, elected officials, researchers, medical and public health professionals will work together to produce a multi-disciplinary approach to reducing gun violence.

"Our most serious crimes commonly involve the use of a firearm. This summit is an important chance for leaders to come together and address a problem that affects us as a nation. In order to protect public safety we need to explore new and innovative ideas to reduce gun violence in our society," said Prosecutor Worthy.
