Dearborn Man Charged with Domestic Violence and Fleeing from Dearborn Police

Prosecutor Kym Worthy has charged Ali Ahmed Zbib, 55, of Dearborn, in connection with the assault of a 42-year-old woman, and fleeing from Dearborn police officers. The victim is the wife of the defendant.

On June 7, 2025, at approximately 5:45 a.m., at a residence in the 5000 block of Argyle in, Dearborn, it is alleged that the defendant assaulted the victim before fleeing the scene. Dearborn police officers were dispatched to the scene and began to canvass the area when they located the defendant inside of a commercial truck cab in the 14300 block of Michigan Avenue. When officers approached the vehicle, it is further alleged that the defendant reversed the truck before pulling forward, striking the officers' vehicle, and fleeing the scene. Officers pursued the defendant to the area of Telegraph and Champaign in Taylor before terminating the chase for officer safety. Defendant Zbib was apprehended by officers on June 9, 2025.

Ali Ahmed Zbib has been charged with Third-Degree Fleeing and Eluding, Malicious Destruction of Police/Fire Property, and Domestic Violence.*

He was arraigned yesterday afternoon in 19th District Court before Judge Mark Somers and given a $100,000 cash/surety bond. The Probable Cause Conference is scheduled for June 18, 2025, at 8:00 a.m., before Judge Mark Somers. Please request a photograph of the defendant from the Dearborn Police Department.

*The charges are allegations and defendants are presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.
