III. INVOCATION

Chair Bell called upon Commissioner Peterson-Mayberry, who introduced Bishop Reginald E. Smith of Union Grace Church, who provided the following invocation:

“Heavenly Father, we come before You today with grateful hearts, thanking You for the privilege of gathering for this Wayne County Commissioners Meeting. We ask for Your guidance, wisdom, and grace as we begin this public meeting. Please bless every elected official, staff member, and especially the commissioners who faithfully serve the residents of the fifteen districts of Wayne County. Grant them discernment to make decisions that promote equality, economic justice, and fairness for all residents of Wayne County. Help them to listen to one another with open minds and respectful hearts, and to work together in unity, even when disagreements arise. May their words be constructive, their actions honorable, and their efforts fruitful for the well-being of this community. Give them strength to lead with integrity, compassion, and a sincere commitment to the people they serve. We ask these blessings in Your holy name. Amen.” (Prayer provided in writing)
