

Josephine Gomon, 1892-1975

At the Great Depression's outset, she designed programs to feed and house Detroit's poor. The outspoken and tireless fighter for liberal causes was a national founder of the Planned Parenthood League.