

Hines Drive Road Closure Information For Flooding and Saturday in the Park

Every Saturday from May 2, 2026, through September 26, 2025, from 9:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m., six miles of the Hines Drive will be closed to traffic from Ann Arbor Trail to Outer Drive for the public of all ages to run, walk or cycle safely for the Saturday in the Park Program.

Please be advised that no motor vehicles are permitted on Hines Drive during this time from Ann Arbor Trail to Outer Drive. The parkway is always patrolled by the Wayne County Sheriff and Dearborn Heights Police Department. Violations of ignoring barricades may result in citations.

In addition, Hines Drive is often closed due to flooding, but your rental site may be accessible and dry. You can call the park's office at (734) 261-1990 to see if your area is flooded Monday through Saturday 9:00 AM-4:00 PM (Closed for lunch from 12:00-1:00 PM)

Please advise your group of the alternative way to get to your picnic site.
SEE MAP ON REVERSE SIDE.

You must go around the first set of barricades to get to your picnic site. Only the first set of barricades. Anyone caught going around the 2nd set of barricades will be ticketed.
