HAMTRAMCK MAYOR CLEARED OF CHARGES

Today, Prosecutor Kym L. Worthy announced that no charges will issue against Hamtramck Mayor Thomas Jankowski. Mr. Jankowski will not be charged in connection with two criminal allegations lodged against him.

The first complaint occurred at the Belmont Bar located at 2669 Yemans in Hamtramck on September 22, 2004 where Mr. Jankowski was accused of allegedly assaulting Charles Cirgenski, a Hamtramck City Councilman. An investigation of the incident by the Wayne County Prosecutors Office will not result in prosecution because it was found that there was insufficient evidence to support criminal charges.

The second incident involving a 29-year-old white female was alleged to have occurred at the 88th Avenue Bar, located at 10200 Conant in the City of Hamtramck. A thorough investigation conducted by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office will not result in prosecution because there is insufficient evidence to support a conviction.
