Statement of Kym L. Worthy Regarding Riddle Bond Hearing

This office handles over 8000 domestic violence cases a year. We are treating this case the same as any other domestic violence case. We are duty bound as officers of the court to immediately report any violation of court conditions. We agree with the court's decision to reinstate the tether today.

Kilpatrick Files Emergency Application for Leave to Appeal

This afternoon Defendant Kilpatrick filed an Emergency Application for Leave to Appeal to the Michigan Supreme Court. The Wayne County Prosecutor's Office has answered the application. The WCPO answer was filed a few minutes ago and is attached for your review. You will need to contact the defense for their pleadings. We will wait for a decision from the Court of Appeals in this matter.

Procedural Information Regarding the Kilpatrick Case

We have just been informed that Kilpatrick money orders have been dropped off in the amount of $14,048.

We have received a decision from the Michigan Court of Appeals regarding the defendant's Emergency Application for Leave to Appeal. It is attached in PDF format. The proceedings are not stayed. The Court of Appeals has not made a decision and will request the transcript and consider the issue. This means the probation violation action can proceed in the Wayne County Circuit Court.

Currently, Kilpatrick is in violation of his probation. In the near future there will be a warrant filed with the court by the Probation Department. The court will set a date for the defendant to appear and enter a plea of guilty or not guilty. If he enters a not guilty plea the court will set a date for a hearing.

Statement of Kym L. Worthy

We expect that a violation of probation warrant will issue. When that comes we will be prepared to attend any hearings set by the court.
