Allison Howard - (DOB: 6/6/69) – Charged with Perjury and Obstruction of Justice in connection with the investigation into the fatal shooting death of Aiyana Stanley-Jones. Howard obstructed justice by lying to prosecutors about copying, showing or giving video footage that she shot of the raid, to third parties causing a significant delay in the investigation of the case. Today Howard pleaded no contest to Obstruction of Justice, and the Perjury Count was dismissed. Howard has a sentence agreement of 18 to 24 months probation, which will be conducted by the State of Massachusetts. There is a fine of $2000 and up to 200 hours of community service.

Howard's no contest plea was granted by Judge Cynthia Hathaway based on the possibility of civil liability. The facts placed on the record for the plea are as follows: An investigative subpoena was conducted on Friday, May 21, 2010 at the office of the Wayne County Prosecutor at Frank Murphy in the City of Detroit. The court said that it reviewed the transcripts of the Grand Jury, and was satisfied that testimony of Sgt. Tawana Powell established the offense of Obstruction of Justice based on the work done by the Michigan State Police.

She will be sentenced on July 25, 2013 at 9:00 a.m.
