Fr. Timothy Kane and Dorreca Brewer – Both defendants are alleged to have taken money from the Catholic Archdiocese Angel Fund. Today both defendants were arraigned on the information before Judge Margie Braxton, who stood in for Judge David Groner. Dorreca Brewer's presence was waived by the court today because the attorney representing her said she was confused about the court dates. The defendants asked for a jury courtroom and will now be before Judge Bruce Morrow for the calendar conference scheduled for April 11, 2014.

Robert Bashara – Grosse Pointe Park man charged with killing his wife. His pre-trial hearing is scheduled for 9:00 a.m. tomorrow before Judge Vonda Evans.

Timothy Wafer – Dearborn Heights man charged with shooting Renisha McBride on his front porch. His final conference and motion hearings are scheduled for 9:00 a.m. before Judge Qiana Lillard.

Robert Bashara – Grosse Pointe Park man accused of killing his wife. Today defense attorneys David Cripps and Gabi Silver withdrew from representing the defendant due to a potential conflict of interest. New representation was not appointed by the court today. Defense attorney Lillian Diallo continues to represent Bashara. The next court date is scheduled for April 15, 2014.

Theodore Wafer – Dearborn Heights man charged in the fatal shooting of Renisha McBride. Today Judge Qiana Lillard denied the defense motion for the judge to recuse herself. The matter was appealed by the defense to the Judge Timothy Kenny, Chief Judge of the Criminal Division. He has scheduled April 25, 2014 for the next court date on this matter.

Charles Jones – Convicted in the homicide of high school student Je'rean Blake. His sentence hearing before Judge Richard Skutt has been adjourned from Monday, April 7, 2014 until April 18, 2014 at 8:30 a.m.
