On March 6, 2016 before 4:00 p.m., it is alleged that Corzilius demanded money, hit Clancy in the face and bound his hands with duct tape. Corzilius slashed Clancy's neck with a knife, stole property from his home and drove away from the location with the stolen property in his truck. The defendant had been hired as a handyman to clean gutters and remove snow from Mr. Clancy's home. Investigation by the Grosse Pointe Farms Police Department resulted in the identification and arrest of Corzilius.

The defendant has been charged with Assault with Intent to Murder, Assault with Intent to do Great Bodily Harm, Felonious Assault, Armed Robbery, Home Invasion First Degree, Unlawful Imprisonment and Larceny in a Building.

Prosecutor Worthy said: "It was pretty clear to those in law enforcement that this brutally violent assault was not random, but the work of someone who knew Mr. Clancy. The alleged actions of the defendant bear this out."

Corzilius was arraigned in Grosse Pointe Farms District Court before Judge Matthew R. Rumora at 5:00 p.m. He received a one million dollar cash/surety bond and the Probable Cause Hearing is on March 23, 2016, 8:00 a.m. and the Preliminary Examination will be held on March 30, 2016 at 8:00 a.m.

Mateen Cleaves Charged in Alleged Sexual Assault

Prosecutor Kym Worthy has charged Mateen Cleaves, 39, of Grand Blanc, Michigan in connection with an alleged sexual assault of a 24-year-old Mount Morris, Michigan woman. On September 14, 2015, Cleaves was at a charity golf outing where he was introduced to the complainant, her boyfriend and several co-workers. On October 23, 2015, the case was transferred to the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office by the Prosecuting Attorney's Coordinating Counsel. Wayne County Assistant Prosecutor Lisa Lindsey will prosecute the case in Genesee County.

Today Cleaves has been charged with Unlawful Imprisonment (15-year maximum penalty), Assault with Intent to Commit Criminal Sexual Penetration (10 year maximum penalty), Criminal Sexual Conduct Second Degree (15-year maximum penalty) and two counts of Criminal Sexual Conduct Third Degree (15-years maximum penalty).

Prosecutor Worthy said, "The evidence in this case will show that the alleged actions of this defendant were not only criminal, but arose out of a sense of entitlement sometimes found in prominent people."

The arraignment on the warrant will not take place today. Arrangements are being made for Cleaves to turn himself for processing and arraigned in 67th District Court in Genesee County on March 17, 2016 at 9:00 a.m.

Prosecutor Worthy said, "I don't know how they do things in Genesee County but we try our best to be as transparent as possible when my office is involved. We do not approve of secret proceedings unless it is proscribed by law. There was an agreement with all of the parties that the defendant would turn himself in and be arraigned in open court tomorrow - not for him to have a back door arraignment. The public has a right to know and, frankly, I am extremely disappointed that this was handled so clandestinely today. I hope this is not a precursor of things to come."
