

Emily Corwin

---

Director, Grants and Legislation

Emily Corwin joined the Prosecutor's Office as the Director of Grants and Legislation in 2011. Since joining the Office, she has facilitated the passage of over 20 state laws that promote justice, integrity, and fairness in the criminal justice system. She was an integral member of the team that worked to pass Michigan's Sexual Assault Kit Evidence Submission Act and the Sexual Assault Kit Evidence Tracking & Reporting Act. In her current position she is also responsible for state and federal grant compliance and managing grant projects. Ms. Corwin received her undergraduate degree from Eastern Michigan University. She received her Master of Arts degree and her Juris Doctorate from Wayne State University Law School, graduating Cum Laude, in 2008. Before joining the Prosecutor's Office, Ms. Corwin was the Director of Operations for the Wayne Mediation Center where she developed and managed seven mediation programs including child protection, truancy, labor disputes and probate matters. She also served as an Adjunct Professor at the University of Detroit Law School.

